

Annual Report 2018: Nellore Site Vianney Home: Nellore & Makkuva: India

Education

Accomplishments

- Quality education was made available to the disadvantaged children from Tribal communities; HIV infected and affected children and children with special needs. They were ensured equity in education and they are motivated to pursue higher education despite of difficulties in their families and social background
- Psycho therapy to 50 children living with HIV proved to be an significant tool in helping children visualize a healthy future and they have grown in positive attitude and energy. They are able to cope up with their health issues and family problems
- There is considerable reduction in number of school drop outs among the sponsored children and rate of motivation for higher studies have increased.
- Annual children meet was organized and that created a platform for sponsored children to exhibit their talents and to be recognized. Children were encouraged and motivated to develop themselves to their full potentials.

Children living with HIV attending Psycho Therapy

Goals

- ✿ To help children living with HIV to accept their HIV status and pursue higher studies through carrier guidance and Neuro linguistic programmes
- ✿ To concentrate on slow learners and children lacking motivation for higher studies through special coaching and accompaniment

Health & Hygiene

Accomplishments

- Medical clinic was organized for the 455 sponsored children. Children with immediate medical need received appropriate treatment and regular follow up.
- Health awareness programmes for the tribal communities have reduced the risk of being victims to malaria and other communicable diseases. Better clean environment is maintained.

- Children and adults living with HIV were provided with treatment for opportunistic illnesses. This initiative was a life saving means. Children are regular to School as they have better health and the adults are productive thus their families enjoy a peaceful living with better economical status

Medical Clinic

Goals

- 🌿 To provide timely medical care and health follow up to all the sponsored children through medical checkup and treatment. To provide health care through medical camps at tribal areas.
- 🌿 To help children living with HIV reduce the risk of being victims to opportunistic illness through providing support for medical treatment

Nutrition

Accomplishments

- Nutrition supplements were provided to 50 children with HIV, 40 children with special needs and 150 children from tribal communities. There is significant growth in their health status.
- Awareness on importance of nutrition has helped the families improve health

Goals

- 🌿 To educate parents from tribal background on available and low cost nutrition supplements
- 🌿 To ensure proper nutrition to all the sponsored children

Family and Community

Accomplishments

- Six tribal families that received support from Chalice for livelihood have shared goats with another six families to help them in their economical growth. This value of sharing is a powerful means to empower the tribal communities

Tribal women sharing goats with other six families

- Awareness programmes on saving the environment has promoted eco-consciousness in the communities and among children. They are actively involved in planting trees, preserving water and energy.
- A Home Based Rehabilitation training programme was organized for 47 parents of children with special needs. They were capacitated and are able to have proper rehabilitation plan and implementation process for their children.

Home based Rehabilitation Training programme

Goals

- 🌿 To motivate the parents and the communities from tribal background on right to education
- 🌿 To provide safe living through constructions of houses
- 🌿 To provide livelihood opportunities to enhance economical growth

Direct Family Funding/Circle Groups

Accomplishments

- Capacity building sessions and training programmes on record maintenance was organized for the leaders of Chalice Circle Groups. They are able to lead the groups effectively. They are actively participating in Chalice programmes as volunteers.
- Chalice Circle Group members are involved in empowering the communities through awareness programmes on protecting the environment and taking up community activities like cleaning the common places and planting trees.
- Chalice Circle Groups have developed as support groups thus they show solidarity to their members by helping them in their need and participating in family events.
- Chalice Circle Group members availed loan for small business and other needs and this has raised their standard of living.

Chalice Circle Group Meeting

Goals

- 🌿 To empower tribal women in taking up leadership through capacity building and proving awareness on their rights
- 🌿 To empower leaders and make them independent in leading the Chalice Circle Groups