

Annual Report 2018-2019

Cañete site:
Cañete, Peru

Our site oversees the sponsorship program for both children and elders. The site is comprised of a home for orphaned and/or abandoned girls, and a dispensary. The site also offers lunch for children and elders in their soup kitchen supported by Chalice's nutrition program.

Education

Goals

1. To continue motivating our sponsored children who are in the last years of secondary education, seeking perseverance within their higher education. Also to impart a day of vocational experience.
2. To continue with the follow-up of children with learning difficulties, visiting their Educational Institutions and family, also motivating their participation in the different programmed activities (music and writing workshops, library mini-network).

Achievements

1. At the conclusion of the "Living family and community values" workshop, guidance was given to adolescents and youngsters for the preparation of a life project.
2. Our sponsored students have shown perseverance in their studies, they have also improved with school performance.
3. Follow-up was conducted with children with learning difficulties, visiting their Educational Institutions and families.

Health & hygiene

Goals

1. To train families in the preparation of nutritional diets and lunch boxes to fight anemia, in addition to the conduction of hemoglobin screenings.
2. To address the priority needs of the elderly, providing medications and other health needs.

Achievements

1. Children with disabilities were supported through the performance of physical and language therapies, and the provision of a wheelchair and gastronomy probe with funds from the gift catalogue.
2. Medications were provided to children and older adults who require them due to illness.
3. Feeding practices were improved with iron-rich, varied, nutritious, local foods and in adequate quantity was directed to combat anemia in children and older adults.

Nutrition

Goals

1. To participate in the Chalice's nutrition program to support the children and older adults of the "Santa Ana" Popular Dining Room in San Vicente.
2. To perform the nutritional evaluation of the beneficiaries for their timely referral to specialists.

Achievements

1. There was participation in the nutrition program, benefiting the children and older adults of the Santa Ana Dining Room.
2. The nutritional evaluation of the Chalice Children program beneficiaries and their follow-up was carried out.
3. Several workshops were held on nutritional habits for the elderly.

Community

Goals

1. To develop workshops against family violence and towards family strengthening. To provide, as well, spiritual and psychological assistance for detected cases that require this help.
2. To continue with the mercy experience workshops to benefit family members and the general population of the Cantera Prison.

Achievements

1. The development of workshops at the Cantera Prison has been started with the support of some members of the Family Circles.
2. Obtaining the attention of several teacher tutors in the different educational Institutions has been achieved, the same who have provided valuable information on the status of the sponsored.

Family

Goals

1. To provide families with an entrepreneurial education program.
2. To provide advice to families to implement their small business.

Achievements

1. The "living family and community values" workshops were offered for several months with outstanding participation from the sponsored children and tutors, reaching high attendance rates; positive family experiences have been shared.
2. The keynote speech "Development of Entrepreneurship Capabilities in the Family Mothers of the Sponsorship" was given.
3. The development of a business plan for the Family Circle members was oriented.

Family funding

Goals

1. To introduce family funding to new families that are part of the Family Circles and that will serve as feedback for the other families.
2. To introduce the new families that join the Family Circles into the savings discipline.

Achievements

1. The different Family Circles were accompanied every month, strengthening family participation within decision making.
2. Guidance to the different Family Circles on the discipline of saving and the related activities was provided. Evidencing self-help and growth.